We Have a Cat on Our Team!

Coach Biscuit's team was on the field for Saturday practice. "I have some exciting news for you. We have a new member," Coach Biscuit said.

"Everyone, let's welcome our new friend. Cathy,

please come out."

"Coach, is the new member a cat?" Max shouted.

"I can't believe it," Rusty said. "Let's be nice to her!"

said Coach Biscuit. But the dogs looked nervous. "We never had a cat on our team!" they said.

"Maybe Cathy never had a dog on her team. Now, let's play a game," Coach Biscuit said. "But can she play fetch? She's not a dog. Only dogs can play fetch," Rusty said.

"Be nice! We can teach her," another dog said softly.

Coach Biscuit said, "Cathy, this is your first day. So you can watch and join the game anytime."

The game began. Cathy watched silently.

"Can somebody get the ball? It's going over the fence!" Rusty shouted. "I'll get it!" Everyone looked at the ball and ran toward it. They bumped into each other and fell down.

Then, Cathy jumped into the air and got the ball.

She quickly passed it over.

"Wow, Cathy! How did you do that?" The dogs were surprised.

After the game, everyone talked about Cathy.

"We have a cat on our team now. I'm so glad!" said

Max. "Great!" Coach Biscuit said, "We have another new member."

"A dog or a cat?" Everyone got excited.

"Cookie! Please come out." Coach Biscuit called out to the new member.
