Listen and Talk A

M: Would you like some ice cream?

G: Yes, please.

M: We have strawberry and chocolate.

G: Strawberry ice cream, please.

M: Hello. Are you ready to order?

G: Yes, I'll have a kebab.

M: Would you like a drink?

G: Sure. Orange juice, please.

B: Jane, how was your trip to Vietnam?

G: It was great. I enjoyed the beautiful nature and ate famous local foods.

B: What did you eat?

G: I ate rice noodle soup.

It had a lot of vegetables and meat. It was tasty.

Listen and Talk B

Mina: How was your weekend, Jason?

Jason: It was good.

I went to a baking class on Saturday.

Mina: Oh, what did you make?

Jason: I made apple pies and chocolate cookies.

Mina: Sounds delicious!

Jason: I brought some of them with me.

Would you like some, Mina?

Mina: Sure. Wow, they're so good.

B: Welcome to Jisu's channel!

Today is a traditional Korean holiday, Dano.

So I'm making surichwitteok with my dad now.

It's rice cake with a wheel pattern. It's finally ready!

It looks delicious. Would you like some?

Review

G: David, I cooked some Korean food for you.

B: Oh, thank you. What did you make?

G: Gimbap and japchae. Would you like some?

B: Sure. I want to have gimbap first.

My Korean Food Diary

During the summer vacation, William traveled around Korea with his family. This is his food diary.

July 25

We went to Damyang and visited Jungnogwon, a famous bamboo garden. We enjoyed walking in the garden. After we looked around, we ate two local dishes, daetongbap and tteokgalbi. Daetongbap is rice in a bamboo bowl. I loved its unique bamboo smell. Tteokgalbi, a Korean beef dish, was soft and sweet. The dishes really went well together.

July 30

We visited Tongyeong and went up the mountain by cable car. Seeing the blue ocean and the green islands was fantastic! Near the sea, we found a local restaurant and ate chungmugimbap.

It wasn't like other types of gimhap. There was only rice inside the seaweed. Kimchi and spicy squid were on the side. It was spicy but really delicious. I heard about the history of this food. Chungmu is an old name for Tongyeong. Long ago, fishermen in this town started to eat chungmugimbap because it did not go bad quickly.

August 2

Jeju-do is a beautiful island in Korea. We went there on a very hot day, and we became tired. However, we got our energy back thanks to dombegogi. It surprised me in two ways. First, it was pork on a cutting board, not on a plate. Second, the meat was so soft! I had it with a special fish sauce, and the sauce was great, too. Later, I learned about the meaning of dombe. It means a cutting board in Jeju's language.
