Listen and Talk A

1

W: Finally, we are here. I'm so excited.

M: Me, too. But I don't know much about art.

W: Why don't we use an audio guide?

M: That's a good idea.

2

G: Look! What do you think of this painting of a woman?

B: It's great! It looks simple, and I like its unique style.

G: I agree. Who drew it?

B: Henri Matisse did.

3

B: What do you think of this cup?

G: It's cool. I like the colors and the picture on it.

B: Me, too. I'll buy one.

G: I'll buy one, too.

Listen and Talk B

Jun: Look. There are programs for teens in this museum.

Lucy: Yeah. Let's join one of them.

Jun: That's a good idea.

Lucy: What do you think of "Art in Movies"?

It sounds interesting.

Jun: "Art in Movies"? Umm, it's too long.

What about "Jobs in Art"?

Lucy: I like that. It starts at 11:00 in Room 5.

Let's hurry!

Review

B: What do you think of this painting?

G: It's amazing.

I want to buy a poster of this painting.

B: That's a great idea. Where is the gift shop?

G: It's over there. Follow me!

W: What do you think of this artwork? You can see a traditional Korean house between two buildings.

But are we in Korea? No, we're not. We're in Liverpool, the United Kingdom. Let's meet the artist and ask him questions about this fantastic artwork.

Henri's Scissors

In a small town in France, there lived a young boy.

His name was Henri Matisse. He liked to draw pictures. He drew pictures in the sand and in his books.

When Matisse grew up, he left his town and became an artist in Paris. He painted pictures day after day and year after year. He was happy with his life. More and more people began to notice him. They loved his paintings, and soon he became famous.

When Matisse became an old man, he fell ill. He could only lie in bed and sleep. He couldn't paint at all. He could only paint in his dreams. When Matisse opened his eyes, they were full of sadness.

Luckily, before long, he could sit. A little later, he started to paint again. However, he realized that he couldn't paint well anymore.

One day, Matisse got a brilliant idea. He picked up scissors, cut some paper, and made beautiful shapes.

He cut out birds and flowers. He was drawing with SCISSORS! He said to himself, "My pleasure in cutting things grows and grows. Scissors gave me another chance." Matisse cut paper all day.

Soon his room was full of shapes and colors. "I stay in bed most of the time, but I made a small paper garden all around me. There are leaves, fruits, and birds ... I am really happy," he thought.

Perhaps M a t i s s e is still using scissors to cut out stars in heaven. Look at the night sky. Some of the stars may come from his scissors.
