Watch and Talk A

1.

B: This weekend, I'm running a marathon for the first time.

G: Really? I hope you finish the race.

B: I hope so, too, but I'm a little worried.

G: Just do your best. You'll do great.

2.

B: I have a math test tomorrow.

G: Good luck, Minsu. I hope you do well on it.

B: Thanks, but I'm a little nervous. I don't think I'm well prepared.

G: Don't worry. You'll do fine.

3.

G: I hear you're going to take a trip to Jeju-do with your dog.

B: Yes. I'm so excited.

G: I hope you have a great time with your dog in Jeju-do.

B: Thanks, but I'm a little worried for him. This is his first time on an airplane.

G: Oh, don't worry. It's a short flight.

4.

W: Today is the first day of school. How's it going, Chris?

B: Good, but I'm a little nervous.

W: You'll be all right. I hope you make lots of friends soon.

B: I hope so, too. Thank you, Ms. Lee.

Watch and Talk C

M: You look a little worried, Somi.

G: Well, I just joined the NGO VANK. Remember?

You once talked about it in class.

M: Of course, I do. Its main goal is to introduce Korea to the world.

G: You know, I'm interested in Korean history and culture.

M: Then, it's the perfect choice for you. So, what are you worried about?

G: Well, it's just . . . my English is not good enough.

M: Oh, don't worry, Somi. Your English is OK. You'll do fine.

G: Do you really think so?

M: Sure. I just hope you have a chance to learn more about Korean history.

G: Thanks, Mr. Hopkins. I'll do my best.

Listen Up

B: Hello, teens! Do you want to make the world better? Then, join Green Teens! Our goal is to stop global warming. For this, we do various activities. For example, we hold zero-waste challenges and tree planting events. Interested? Then, join us! I hope we can make a difference together.

Review

1.

B: I hear you're going on a trip to Jeju-do tomorrow.

Have a great time!

G: Thanks, but I don't think I can. I don't feel well.

B: Oh, no. What's wrong?

G: I have a terrible cold.

B: I'm so sorry. I just hope you feel better soon.

2.

G: I have a dance contest tomorrow. I'm a little worried.

B: You'll do great. I think you're the best dancer in our school.

G: Do you really think so?

B: Of course. I hope you win first prize.

I grew up in Jeju-do, so I had many chances to see dolphins. Then, I learned that many dolphins are in danger. Some are even endangered. I thought I should do something. So, I searched the Internet and found an NGO, Dolphin Lovers. It does various activities such as cleaning up beaches and helping dolphins. After some thought, I joined it today.

Jan 20

Many dolphins get sick or even die because of plastic waste and fishing nets, so cleaning up beaches is important. There was a beach cleanup party today, and I took part in it. Cleaning up the beach was not easy, but I enjoyed it. Oh, I saw Aunt Sumi there. She is also a member of Dolphin Lovers.

What a small world!

Feb 14

This afternoon, I took part in a training class for Halla and Olle, two dolphins in an aquarium in Jeju-do. The latest project of Dolphin Lovers is to return them to the sea. For this, Halla and Olle first need to learn some skills. They will need them to survive in the wild. I really wanted to be part of the project. Luckily, I got the chance. I just ran some errands in the training class today, but the experience made me so excited.

Apr 22

Today, Halla and Olle went back to the sea. There was a small ceremony, and all the members of Dolphin Lovers were there. The ceremony made us quite emotional. In fact, I cried a little. Now I cannot see Halla and Olle anymore! However, I was very happy at the same time. After 10 years of hard life in an aquarium, now all the sea is their home. "Live freely and happily ever after!" I shouted and waved goodbye to them.
