Different but Together

Hello! I'm Christopher Robin from the storybook, Winnie-the-Pooh. I'm a thoughtful character in the stories, and I'm kind to my friends. Now I'm looking at some old pictures of them. They are the happiest animals in the woods. Would you like to take a look and hear about them?

This is Pooh and me. Pooh loves all kinds of food, but he likes honey the best. In this picture, he is holding a big balloon and trying to get honey from a beehive. What happened next? The bees popped his balloon, so he couldn't get the honey. He failed, but he was cheerful and hopeful. He is always thinking of creative ways to get honey.

This is a picture of a stormy day in the woods. The strong wind almost broke the door, so my friends had to hold it. Luckily, there was a rope to help. Pooh and Rabbit couldn't move, but small, scared Piglet could. They said to Piglet, "Tie the door, please!" He gathered his courage and tied it tightly. Piglet is shy and easily scared. But he becomes brave when his friends need him.

My friend in the last picture is Owl. Owl believes he is the smartest animal in the woods. He is proud of his knowledge. In this picture, Owl is telling us a long story, and we are listening. Do you see the look on our faces? You're right! We're not really following his story. He talks a lot, and sometimes his stories are hard to understand. But he loves giving us advice, and it's often helpful. Owl is always ready to help.

We're all different, but we're good friends. We love each other.
