Topic 1 Listen & Talk

A Listen and Number

1

B Rosa, are you good at baking?

G Yes. I started learning to bake three years ago.

B That's amazing. Your bread must be delicious.

G Thanks. You can try some if you want.

2

B What are you doing?

G I'm studying coding. My goal is to make a game someday.

B I see. Are you good at coding?

G No, I'm not good at it yet. But I'm working hard.

B That's good. I'm sure you will create a fun game one day.

3

B Hi, nice to meet you. I'm Jake, the new guitarist.

G Nice to meet you. Welcome to our band! I'm Luna, and I play the drums.

B Oh, I heard that you are good at playing the drums.

G That's nice to hear. I practice a lot.

B Well, I look forward to playing with you.

G Yes, it will be fun! I'm sure we will make a great band.

C Listen Up

B Mia, you're interested in writing, right?

G Yes. I want to be a writer, so I keep a diary every day.

B That's great! I'm sure you will be a good writer.

G Thank you. How about you, Suho? Do you enjoy writing?

B I enjoy it, but I'm not good at it.

G Then why don't you join a writing class with me? There's a new one in the after-school program.

B Really? Can you tell me more about it?

G Sure. It is held every Wednesday at 5:00 p.m. in the school library. We can learn to write essays.

B That sounds good. Let's sign up together.

G Great!

Topic 2 Real-Life Communication

G Jiwon, I saw your dance video on social media.

B Really? What did you think of it?

G It was amazing. You are really good at dancing!

B Thank you. I often make dance videos and post them.

G That's great. Look, this video got a lot of comments. People said that they loved your dance moves.

B I'm glad to hear that. But I should practice more.

G I think you're already good.

B Actually, I'm practicing new dance moves these days. They are very difficult.

G I see. I'm sure you will learn them quickly!

Lesson Review

G Our Sports Day is coming, Siwoo! I'm excited.

B Hi, Yejin. What event are you going to take part in?

G I'm going to run a race.

B Oh, me too. Are you good at running?

G Yes. I have won races before.

B That's so cool. Actually, I'm worried about the race because I'm not good at running.

G I can help you. Why don't we run together every morning?

B I'd love to! Thank you, Yejin.

G No problem. I'm sure you will get better.

The Dot

Art class was over, but Vashti still sat in her chair.

Her paper was blank. Her teacher leaned over and looked at it.

"Ah! It is a polar bear in a snowstorm," she said.

"That's funny!" said Vashti. "I CAN'T draw!"

Her teacher smiled. "Just make a mark."

Vashti picked up a marker and drew a small dot on the paper.

"Here it is!"

Her teacher picked up the paper and looked at it carefully.

"Hmmm."

She pushed the paper toward Vashti and asked her to sign it.

Vashti thought for a moment.

"Well, maybe I can't draw, but I CAN sign my name."

The next day, Vashti was surprised to see something in a frame on the wall of the art classroom. It was her little dot!

"I can make a better dot than that!" Vashti said.

She got a brush and started painting.

A red dot. A purple dot. A yellow dot. A blue dot.

Then she mixed blue and yellow together. She discovered that she could make a green dot. Vashti kept experimenting. She painted lots of little dots in many colors.

"If I can make little dots, I can make big dots, too."

All of the dots that she painted looked beautiful together on the paper.

At the school art show a few weeks later, everyone loved Vashti's paintings.

A little boy looked up at her.

"You're a really great artist. I want to paint like you," he said.

"I bet you can," said Vashti.

"Me? No, not me. I CAN'T draw!"

Vashti smiled. She handed the boy a blank sheet of paper and told him to draw a line.

The pencil which the boy held shook as he drew.

Vashti looked at the boy's line. And then she said ...

"Sign it."
