Looking for AdviceWhich club should I choose? jumping_cat

I can't decide on a school club. Last year, I was on the dance team. This year, I want to try something new. Actually, I'm interested in coding. However, all of my friends will stay on the dance team. What should I do?

↳ Re: Stay with your friends. dancing_cow

Club activities are all about spending time with your friends. You'll have so much fun with your friends on the dance team. Imagine dancing together at the school festival! Those moments will make good memories.

↳ Re: Try something different! coding_bear

You should try something that interests you. Who knows? You might learn coding and create a fun app. Maybe your friends will use your app. Just follow your heart, and don't worry about anything else.

How can I get a dog? cute_puppy

Yesterday, I ran into a friend who was walking her dog. The dog's name is Gamja, and she's so cute! I want a dog, too, but my parents won't allow it.

What should I do?

↳ Re: Dogs are so cute! sweet_fox

I think everybody loves cute puppies. Why don't you share some cute dog videos and pictures with your parents? Maybe they'll open up to the idea. You can also invite your friend and Gamja to your home. Spending time together may move your parents' hearts!

↳ Re: Be responsible. wise_owl

Having a dog is a big responsibility. You need to feed and walk your dog every day. You always have to clean up after the dog. You also have to wash your dog regularly. Can you do these things on your own? Think about it. When you're truly ready, tell your parents. Good luck!
