My Hometown, ChuncheonWelcome to my blog, "Happy Yujin!"

Hi, my name is Yujin, and I'm writing a blog to introduce my hometown, Chuncheon. Have you ever visited Chuncheon? It's famous for its beautiful mountains and lakes. There are so many things to do and so many things to see. Nowadays, the number of foreign tourists who visit Chuncheon is growing. I want to share the history of Chuncheon and tips for visitors from around the world. So, I started this blog.

Today's focus is the Memorial Hall for Ethiopian Soldiers in the Korean War. On the first floor of the hall, visitors can see the names and pictures of the brave soldiers. On the second floor, Ethiopian cultural items are displayed. If you want to know about the special history between Korea and Ethiopia, please click on the link below.

Friendship Across the World

Ethiopia and Korea are far apart on the map, but they have had strong ties for many years. Ethiopia was the only African country to send soldiers during the Korean War. Ethiopian soldiers fought many battles in Chuncheon and never lost. During the war, some Korean children lost their parents. Ethiopian soldiers used their own money to help them.

In the 2000s, Chuncheon became the sister city of Addis Ababa, the capital city of Ethiopia. Each city built a memorial hall to honor the Ethiopian soldiers who fought in the Korean War. The Memorial Hall in Chuncheon was built in 2006. It looks like a traditional Ethiopian house. It has three round roofs. Here, you can feel the strong friendship between the two countries.

In the next story, I will introduce Soyanggang Skywalk and share some useful tips for traveling there. You don't want to miss it!
