Communication A

1

G You look busy today.

B Yes, I'm working on a project about Marie Curie.

I'm interested in her work in science.

G That sounds interesting!

B I want to be a scientist like her.

G I hope you become a great scientist.

B Yumi, what are you doing?

G I'm reading a book about Neil Armstrong. I'm interested in his journey to the moon.

B That sounds amazing!

G My dream is to become an astronaut like him.

B I hope your dream comes true.

Communication C

Junho Minji, what are you reading?

Minji I'm reading this book My Life with the Chimpanzees.

Junho Are you interested in chimpanzees?

Minji Yes, I am. This book is about the life of Jane Goodall and her love for chimpanzees.

Alex I read the book, too. She's an animal scientist who studied chimpanzees for many years.

Minji You're right. She's the first person to study chimpanzees in the wild. She's my role model.

Junho Wow, that's great!

Minji Like Jane Goodall, I'm very interested in animal behavior. And I want to study animals in the wild and help them, too.

Alex I hope your dream comes true.

Express My Thoughts

G Hi, my name is Ruby. I want to talk about my grandfather. He is so wise that he always has good advice. When I made some mistakes on a test, he told me to learn from the mistakes. After that, I didn't make the same mistakes. I'm guided by his wisdom. I hope to be a wise person like him. He is my role model.

Wrap Up

B Sumin, what are you going to do this weekend?

G I'm going to visit the nature museum. I'm really interested in animals.

B That sounds fun!

G Yeah, I'm so excited.

Exploring Greatness

One day, Emily received an invitation from a museum. This museum wasn't any ordinary museum. It had rooms that celebrated great people. She was excited to begin her exploration.

Her first stop was a room that looked like an old airplane garage. Model airplanes were hanging from the ceiling. A leather pilot jacket and goggles were displayed. When Emily put them on, she could hear the sounds of airplane engines. She looked around the room in surprise.

On the wall, there was a picture of a woman. She looked brave and strong. Her name was Kwon Ki-ok. She was the first female pilot in Korea. Emily also found an old newspaper on the desk. It read, "At that time, women couldn't enter flight schools. However, Kwon Ki-ok didn't give up and worked hard to achieve her dream." Kwon Ki-ok did not just fly airplanes. She also fought against Japan for Korea's independence. Emily was moved by the great life story of Kwon Ki-ok.

Emily stepped into the next room. The room was filled with many books and drawings of insects and plants. It looked like a small forest. When she closed the door, drawings on the desk suddenly started to fly around the room. She caught one of them. It was a drawing of a honeybee. It was so detailed that the honeybee looked alive.

From one of the bookshelves, Emily found a shining book. She picked it up. She saw the name Jean-Henri Fabre on its cover. When she opened the book, she found an old letter from Charles Darwin. It said, "Thank you for sending me your book. I truly love your work about insects." Emily learned that Fabre wrote many books about insects for more than thirty years. His true love for nature was shown clearly in every corner of the room.
