Express My Thoughts

B I recommend this travel mug. There are a few things that I really like about it. First, it has a handle.

I can carry it easily when I'm going for a walk.

Another thing that I like is its size. It's big, so I can put a lot of water in it. However, there's one problem. It only comes in two colors — green and white. But still, I'm really happy with this mug, and I think you will be happy, too!

Wrap Up

B Excuse me, can you recommend a watch for me, please?

W Sure. How about this green watch?

B How much is it?

W It's 15 dollars.

B Sounds good! I'll take it.

Price might be one thing, but there are actually more things to think about. Here are a few shopping secrets that you must know.

The Tricky Price Tags

First, let's imagine Logan at a clothing store. He finds a nice T-shirt that he really likes. The price tag says 40 dollars. Logan thinks that it is expensive. But the next day, he sees that the price is crossed out and the tag says 30 dollars. Logan talks to himself, "Oh, it's on sale! What a great deal!" He gets excited and decides to buy it. In fact, 30 dollars is still a lot, but Logan thinks it is a great price!

Half Empty, Half Full?

Now, meet Mia who is looking for a little cheese for her sandwich. She has to choose between two types of cheese. One says "20% Fat," and the other says "80% Fat-Free." Mia picks up the 80% fat-free cheese. She says to herself, "I think it's healthier!" She feels proud of the choice that she makes. However, Mia does not know the words are tricking her. Both types of cheese are actually the same!

Lost in Flavors

Lastly, imagine Yena at an ice cream shop with many kinds of ice cream flavors. Exciting, right? Well, not for Yena. She feels stressed because there are so many options.
